Re: Geo-Group Communications, Inc. v. Chopra et al.,
No. 15-cv-1756 (KPF) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Failla:

We represent Plaintiff Geo-Group Communications, Inc. ("Geo-Group") in the referenced matter.

We received yesterday a copy of the transcript of the November 19, 2018 status conference that the Court held concerning Geo-Group's motions for permission to: (a) move for leave to reassert claims against the dismissed LLC defendants, Sanjiv Chand, and dismissed defendant Mahendra Shah, and for alternative relief; and (b) serve certain limited-in-scope document subpoenas against certain third-parties.

This morning we contacted Southern District Reporters to determine whether the Court had requested a copy of the transcript but learned that it had not. Attached as Exhibit A is a copy of the transcript, a courtesy copy of which we also provided to pro se Defendant Vipin Shah.

On transcript pages 30, line 23; 31, line 13; and 32, lines 5, 7, and 23, the term "LLC" appears. The term I recall using during that portion of the conference (which concerned a proposed subpoena to NRM Holdings) was “LOC,” as in “letter of credit,” not “LLC,” as in “limited liability company.”

Respectfully submitted,
